Today's question

What do you say next?

Bonus question

Name one thing you could have done last week that would have stopped this happening at all.

My Answer

“ Agree on the true one first. ”

Sameer is looking at

Revenue

₹24.6 Lakh

Rank 1

My analysis shows

Store contribution

-₹0.72 Lakh

After all store costs

What I say

“ I totally agree with you, Sameer. Koramangala is our best store in terms of revenue. After all the costs, though, the store shows a negative value. ”

“ Don’t win the argument. Name the metric we’re discussing. ”

AttiQ Café

Bonus Answer

“ Tell Sameer before the meeting, not in it. ”

Last week, privately

Sameer, here is Koramangala contribution with every cost line. Can you check my inputs?

Sent before the meeting

Meeting

He has already seen the metric and the number.

A cost is wrong?

We fix it before anyone in the room notices.

The number holds?

He hears it from me, with the reasons and proof.

Day 26 lesson

“ When your number is challenged, start by agreeing with the part that is right. ”
